

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. Whereas by an inquisition taken at the Guildhall in the parish of St. Lawrence, Old Jewry, London, on 26 February, 24 Henry VI. before Simon Eyre, then mayor and escheator of the city of London, it was found that John Essex, citizen and draper of London, on Thursday after the Translation of St. Thomas the Martyr, 35 Edward III. in his last will bequeathed a tenement with houses and gardens in the parish of St. Stephen aforesaid (sic), which he acquired from Sir Hugh Blounte and Robert Syward, and 10s. quit-rent which he acquired from Philip Gentyll from a tenement then of William Hardewyke situated in the parish of St. Lawrence, Jewry, on the death of Alice his wife to the use of a perpetual chantry for the sustenance of a chaplain to celebrate divine service in the said church of St. Stephen for the souls of the said John and Alice and their fathers and mothers, without licence, and Adam Godeman, sometime citizen of London, in his last will on 13 August 1363, bequeathed to Alice his wife for life all his tenements and shops on the north side of an alley called 'Church Aley' in the parish of St. Stephen aforesaid which he acquired from John Essex, and he willed that these tenements with others on the south side of the alley should remain to the said church of St. Stephen, to celebrate divine service for the souls of himself and his wife and do other works of charity according to the ordinance of the said Alice, executrix of his will, and John at More and John Conyngton, her co-executors, without licence, and William Grapefige, sometime citizen of London, on Monday after St. Dunstan, 7 Edward II. in his last will bequeathed to Walter his son and his heirs and assigns three messuages in the parish of St. Stephen, Colmanstrete, London, by the name of all the rents and tenements which he had in London, except two shops with sollers and other appurtenances bequeathed to Cristina his daughter and $\frac{1}{2}$ mark rent bequeathed to William the clerk, that the said Walter and his heirs and assigns should sustain a chaplain to celebrate divine service in the said church for the soul of the said William and his relations, without licence, of which messuages one called 'le Cok' and another 'le Garlond' are situated together between a tenement sometime of Stephen Frankeleyn on the south and a tenement sometime of Thomas Mestell on the north, of which one end abuts on the highway of Colmanstrete towards the east and a garden sometime of John Hertwell, citizen and mercer of London, towards the west, and the third messuage, sometime of John Kendale, is situated between the tenement of the church of St. Denis on the south and a tenement pertaining to the chantry of John Essex on the north, of which one end abuts on the highway towards the east and the other on the garden of Edward Welles towards the west, and that the aforesaid premises were held of the late king in free burgage and the said John, Adam and Walter died seised of them in their demesne as of fee, and that the rectors and vicars of the said church of St. Stephen up to the date of the inquisition were seised of the said tenements and rent and a moiety of the said two messuages called 'le Cok' and 'le Garland' by virtue of the said bequests and the will of John Sokelyng alias Sytyngbourn, late citizen of London, enrolled on Monday before St. Cuthbert, 10 Henry VI. and received the fruits thereof until the same were taken into the hands of the late king; the present king, in consideration of the pious intentions of the said John Essex, Adam Godeman and John Sokelyng, and because the said tenements and moiety have come to such ruin that they do not suffice for the support of the chaplains separately, grants to William Leeke, now vicar of the parish church of St. Stephen, Colmanstrete, John Johans and John Fyssch, wardens of the goods and ornaments of the church, and the parishioners of the parish that they shall form one corporate body with a common seal and grants to them in frank almain the said tenements, shops, houses, gardens and rent for the support of a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the church for the souls of the king's father Richard, duke of York, his brother Edmund, earl of Rutland, and his kinsman Richard, earl of Salisbury, and John Essex and Adam Godeman and their fathers and mothers, provided that they apply the issues to the repair of the said tenements, houses, shops and gardens or to other pious uses at the discretion of the bishop of London or his successors, and also the said moiety by the name of the brewhouse called 'le Cok on the Hope' with its appurtenances for keeping the obit of the said John Sokelyng and Margaret and Katharine his wives and all benefactors and parishioners of the church with full service by tolling of bells on the day on which the said John died and at night the placebo and dirige and on the morrow a mass of requiem, and finding a wax candle of the weight of 10 pounds at Easter to burn in the church about the time of the Lord's burial and expending the remaining revenues on the repair of the church and the said moiety.

pieces of a 'half grote,' a penny, a halfpenny and a farthing in like manner; and every pound weight of silver of these moneys shall hold 11 ounces 2*d.* of sterlings of the weight of fine silver and 18*d.* weight of alloy; and of every such pound the king shall have 2*s.* 8*d.*, whereof the master shall have 14*d.* and the warden, controller, clipper of the irons and clerk of the coins shall have their wages, and there shall remain to the merchant 34*s.* 10*d.*; and the 'remedie' shall be 2*d.* weight in the pound. Before issue a noble's value of every 10 pounds of gold and 2*s.* weight of every 100 pounds of silver shall be put in a box sealed with the seals of the warden, master and controller and shut with three keys of which they shall have each one, and the said box shall remain in the keeping of the master and shall be opened every three months for assay at Westminster upon reasonable warning before some lords of the council in the presence of the warden and master, and assay shall be made by fire or touch. The master shall make a privy mark upon all moneys made by him and shall take gravers to grave the irons at the king's cost and other workmen, and the irons when they be clipped shall be delivered to the warden, and the clipper shall not clip elsewhere but in one house within the Tower. He shall receive gold and silver brought to the Tower at its true value, and in case of doubt the king's assayers shall determine the truth, for which purpose two stones and needles shall be provided, and the balances and weights shall be amended from time to time. No money or bullion shall be taken out of the realm, except by special leave of the king, and no false or counterfeit money brought in under pain of forfeiture. The king confirms to the master and his officers and workers of the said money the charters of franchises granted to the moneyers, and the moneyers shall be ready to do their work at all times. And no person shall hold common exchange, privy or apart, on pain of the forfeiture contained in the statute of 25 Edward III. of which forfeiture the master shall have 12*d.* in the pound. And for the performance of the covenants aforesaid the said master has found borowes in 100*l.* each, viz. Ralph Hastynge of Kerby, co. *MEMBRANE 20.*March 6.
Westminster.

On 16 September, 5 Edward IV. the king willed and desired his servant Hugh Brice, deputy to William, lord Hastynges, in his office of master and worker of the king's moneys of gold and silver and keeper of the mints and exchanges in the Tower of London, the realm of England and the town of Calais, to take upon him the occupation and keeping of the mints and exchanges aforesaid and, whereas before that day there was paid at the mints of London, York, Coventry, Norwich and Bristol to every person that brought gold or silver 2*l.* 9*s.* 2*d.* and 33*s.* for every pound weight of the Tower of gold and silver respectively by tale, after that day he was to receive by weight and deliver by the same weight to every person bringing gold or silver to the Tower aforesaid or the mints of York and Bristol until Michaelmas, 6 Edward IV. and to take no more for coinage than 20*s.* 10*d.* and 4*s.* 6*d.* of every pound of Tower weight of gold and silver respectively, and to make moneys of gold and silver according to the indenture between the king and the said lord Hastynge, and, whereas before the said 16 September old nobles and all gold of beyond the sea called 'masse goold,' as well 'salutz' as other, were bought at no certainty by cause of their lack of weight and uncleanness but sometime the said old nobles were bought at 8*s.* 4*d.*, 8*s.* 5*d.*, 8*s.* 6*d.* and 8*s.* 6½*d.* and the noble weight of coins, beyond the sea at 8*s.* and under and old groats and silver as fine as old groats at 2*s.* 10½*d.* the ounce Troy, he was to pay to every person bringing old nobles of just weight and clean or any gold in mass as fine to the mints of London, York and Bristol, 8*s.* 6*d.* for every such noble or noble's weight and for other gold at the same rate, rebating the lack of fineness and weight, and 2*s.* 11*d.* for every ounce of Troy of old groats or silver as good and for other silver uncoined at the same rate, rebating the lack of fineness, and to receive coins though they may lack in fineness if they do not thus lack over the remedies ordained, and because divers gold of beyond the sea and pence of silver made of long time past in the mints of York and Duresme and other places of the realm brought to the king's mints and exchanges were not so good in fineness as the king's new coins or those of Edward III. and Richard II. he was to make the new coins of gold and silver as good in fineness as the coins of Edward III. and Richard II. and the three Henrys, and to take to farm of the king the casual profits by way of emptions, remedies or otherwise of all the mints and exchanges aforesaid, paying to the king from the said 16 September until the said Michaelmas 600 marks and for every year after 300 marks, saving to the king the right to discharge him of the farm, and to retain 140*l.* yearly for the occupying of the exchanges of London and the wages of himself and his servants and his other costs and charges. And on 29 September, 6 Edward IV. the king abated of the coinage in the mints of every pound of Tower weight of silver 16*d.* and desired the said Hugh to continue his occupation as above, taking for coinage 20*s.* 10*d.* and 3*s.* 2*d.* for every pound of Tower weight of gold and silver respectively, and paying 8*s.* 6*d.* for the noble's weight of gold and 3*s.* for the ounce Troy of silver. And on 29 September, 7 Edward IV. the king abated of the coinage in the mints 6*s.* 4*d.* and 6*d.* of every pound of Tower weight of gold and silver respectively, and desired the said Hugh to continue his occupation as above, taking for coinage 14*s.* 6*d.* and 2*s.* 8*d.* for every pound of Tower weight of gold and silver respectively and paying 8*s.* 8*d.* for the noble's weight of gold, and 3*s.* 1*d.* for the ounce Troy of silver. And on 29 September last past the king desired the said Hugh to continue his occupation as above until one year after Christmas, taking for coinage 14*s.* 6*d.* and 2*s.* 8*d.* as above and paying 8*s.* 8*d.* for the noble's weight of gold and 3*s.* 1*d.* for the ounce Troy of silver. And the said Hugh by the assent of the said lord Hastynge has agreed to perform and fulfil these covenants, and the king hereby ratifies and confirms them.

MEMBRANE 16.

March 8. By letters patent dated 28 February, 5 Edward IV. the king granted Westminister. licence to John Crosby of London, 'grocer,' or his executors after his decease or their factors or attorneys to ship 75 sacks of wool in the ports of London, Sandwich and Southampton and take them to foreign parts by the straits of Marrok quit of customs and subsidies, and accordingly on 21 March, 7 Edward IV, in the port of Southampton the said John shipped 60 sacks of wool in a galley of which Angelus Boon of la Monte was owner by indentures between himself and Richard Assh and Thomas Roo, then collectors of the customs and subsidies in the said port, without payment of customs or subsidies, but Richard, earl of Ryvers, then treasurer of England, induced him to forego the benefit of the letters patent and to pay the sum of 160*l.* for the customs and subsidies to the collectors, promising that he should ship other wools quit of customs and subsidies, and he agreed and paid the said 160*l.*, and afterwards on 16 September, 7 Edward IV. by appointment of the said earl in the said port by Alan de Monte Ferrato, merchant, by pretext of letters patent of the king to the latter, 56½ sacks and 24 cloves of wool in 118 'pokys' of the goods of the said John in recompense of the shipment of the said 60 sacks were shipped in a carrack of which Anthony Bore was owner to be taken to foreign parts quit of customs and subsidies, but unfortunately these with other merchandise foundered with the carrack at sea. Accordingly, in consideration of the loss sustained by the said John and for 200*l.* paid by him at the receipt of the Exchequer on 19 May, 6 Edward IV. representing the sum of the customs and subsidies due to the king on 75 sacks of wool at the rate of 4 marks on each sack, and because he has surrendered the said letters patent, the king hereby grants licence for him or his executors after his decease or their factors or attorneys to ship 64 sacks of wool as above quit of customs and subsidies.

Commissions of the peace in various counties. (See Appendix.)

MEMBRANE 18d.

March 26. Commission to the king's kinsman Edmund, earl of Kent, and John Dogmersfield. Broughton, Thomas Reynes, William Pek and the sheriff of Bedford to enquire into the counterfeiting, clipping, sweating, and falsification of money in the county of Bedford.

March 11. The king lately by letters patent (see p. 101) appointed William Westminster. Bourghchier of Fitzwaren, knight, Richard Chok, knight, John Gyfford, Thomas Dowerissh, John Orchard, John Denys, John Aps the elder, William Sprygge, William Duke, Richard Morton the elder, Walter Gayncot, Richard Gefferey and Philip Beaumont, then sheriff of Devon, to enquire into a complaint of John May of Bristol, merchant, concerning a ship of his called le Raphaell of Bristol; and now on the part of the said John May it has been shown that although by an inquisition taken by virtue of the said letters before the said John Orchard, Walter and Philip at Barnestaple, co. Devon, on 25 August last it was found that the said ship was laden at Dansk in Prussia with divers goods and merchandise to take to Bristol and came safely to England and certain merchants and mariners landed from the ship, viz. Thomas Baker and Richard Laken at Grimisby, co. Lincoln, Thomas Laweles and John Yonge at Holdernes, co. York, Edward Kyte, John Bowton and James Bertram at Kyngeston on Hull and Peter Forstall, William Chekes, Clement Hyll, William Bowyer, John Saunders and Thomas Kayser at Sandwich, co. Kent, and the remainder sailed towards the port of Bristol but by a vehement tempest were compelled to wait in Bedebay within the county of Devon (sic) 70 miles within the river Severn and from the sea and there dropped their anchors, which could not hold the ship, and cut away the mast of the ship, but nevertheless the ship was driven ashore near Kilkampton on the confines of the counties of Devon and Cornwall on Friday after St. Martin then last past, the said John May and the merchants being then on land, and Richard Horlok and Thomas Don and other mariners who were on the ship at the time came alive to land, and divers goods and merchandise in the ship came into the hands of divers persons, viz. 24 barrels of pitch and bitumen and 200 'waynscotes' to the value of 18*l.* of the goods of John Gregory,

MEMBRANE 7.

April 27. Exemplification, at the request of the mayor and aldermen of the city of Westminster. London, of the tenour of the following:—

1. Letters patent dated 12 October, 8 Edward IV. (see p. 111), granting to the king's kinsman William, earl of Pembroke, power to make a weir across the Thames.

2. A writ of privy seal (English) dated 17 April, 9 Edward IV. directed to Robert, bishop of Bath and Wells, the chancellor, and Robert Kirkeham, keeper of the rolls and books of Chancery, commanding them to receive and cancel the said letters and the enrolment thereof and to address a writ to the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer for the discharge of the said earl of the said 20*s.* there mentioned.
The king granted the said letters because he was informed that he was entitled to a weir in the river Thames called 'Holgilles Were,' now broken and utterly destroyed, but William Taillour, the mayor, and the aldermen of the said city have shown that they have the 'conservance' of certain statutes and ordinances within the said river from the bridge of Staines to the said city and further in the said water and the water of Midway, and the rebuilding of the weir would be contrary to the same and the liberty of the city, and accordingly the said earl has agreed to surrender the said letters.

3. The cancellation of the said letters patent and of their enrolment in accordance with the said writ on surrender by Kenelm Dygas, attorney of the said earl, on 24 April.

Whereas from time immemorial the brethren of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem in England according to customs and ordinances at each voidance of the hospital proceeded freely and without royal licence to the election of another prior from themselves, and the issues and revenues of all the possessions of the hospital during voidance pertained to the treasurer of the hospital after all charges and hospitality for the defence of the church, the Holy Land and the Christians against the Saracens, Pagans and other enemies without any seisin into the king's hands, and the elect became prior and was admitted to all the possessions of the hospital without any oath of fealty or suit before the king; and although in the time of Edward III. one Leonard de Tibertis, late an alien brother of the hospital and born without the king's obedience, was elected prior and did fealty because he was an alien but under protest that this should be without prejudice to the hospital, nevertheless the said king on a scrutiny of the rolls and memoranda of the Exchequer acquitted one Philip de Thame, the immediate successor of the said Leonard as prior, of the said fealty and the issues of the lands of the said hospital and the lands sometime of the master and brethren of the order of the Temple in England, in the hands of the said prior and brethren, taken into the hands of the said king by pretext of the annulling of the said order; and on the late voidance of the hospital by the death of Robert Botill, late prior, the brethren proceeded to election as above without licence and elected John Langstrother, and the king caused the records, rolls and memoranda to be searched and found nothing for his right, and the said John was instituted prior and became possessed of the possessions of the hospital and afterwards did fealty under protest as above, and the issues of the possessions of the hospital during the voidance were answered for; the king, to remove all ambiguity, declares that all the above proceedings on the part of the prior and brethren are lawful and in no way to his prejudice or detriment.

Exemplification, at the supplication of Jaquetta, duchess of Bedford, late the wife of Richard, earl of Ryvers, of the tenour of an act in the great council, remaining in the office of the privy seal in the chamber of the great council called 'le Parlement chambre' within the palace of Westminster, made on 10 February, 9 Edward IV. In the presence of the king and the cardinal archbishop of Canterbury, the archbishop of York, the bishops of Bath, chancellor, Ely, treasurer, Rochester, keeper of the privy seal, London, Durham and Carlisle, the earls of Warwick, Essex, Northumberland, Shrewsbury and Kent, and the lords Hastings, Mountjoye, Lyle, Cromwell, Scrope of Bolton, Saye and others a supplication addressed to the king on behalf of the said duchess and two schedules in paper annexed were openly read, and afterwards his highness by the advice of the said lords of the council accepting the declaration of the said lady commanded the same to be enacted of record and letters of exemplification to be made. The tenours of the supplication and schedules above mentioned ensue in this wise. The duchess complains that Thomas Wake, esquire, in the time of the late trouble caused her to be brought in a common noise and slander of witchcraft throughout a great part of the realm, insomuch as he caused to be brought to Warwick to divers of the lords present when the king was last there an image of lead made like a man of arms of the length of a man's finger broken in the middle and made fast with a wire, saying that it was made by her to use with witchcraft and sorcery, and for the performing of his malicious intent entreated one John Daunger, parish clerk of Stoke Brewerne, co. Northampton, to say that there were two other images made by her, one for the king and one for the queen, whereunto the said John Daunger neither could nor would be entreated, and the king commanded the said Wake and John Daunger to attend upon the bishop of Carlisle, the earl of Northumberland, the lords Hastynges and Mountjoye and Master Roger Radcliff to be examined, and their examination is here annexed, and in the great council on 19 January last she was cleared of the said slander, wherefore she prays that the same may be enacted of record. Thomas Wake says that this image was shown and left in Stoke with an honest person who delivered it to the clerk of the church and so showed it to divers neighbours after to the parson in the church openly to men both of Schytlanger and Stoke and after it was shown in Sewrisley, a nunnery, and to many other persons, and of all this he heard or wist nothing till after it was sent him by Thomas Kymbell from the said clerk. John Daunger of Shetyllanger said that Thomas Wake sent to him one Thomas Kymbell, then his bailiff, and bad the said John send him the image of lead that he had and so he sent it, at which time he heard no witchcraft of the lady of Bedford, and that the image was delivered to him by one Harry Kyngeston of Stoke, who found it in his house after the departing of soldiers, and that the said Thomas Wake after he came from London from the king sent for him and said that he had excused himself and laid all the blame on John and bad him say that he durst not keep the image and for that cause sent it to Thomas and also bad him say that there were two other images, one for the king and one for the queen, but he refused to say so. English. [Rolls of Parliament, VI. 232.]

was lately seised of the manor of Iveton with appurtenances in Yveton and Radelot, co. Somerset, in his demesne as of fee, until one Richard Lutrell unjustly disseised them of the same, and after the death of the latter one James Lutrell intruded into and was seised of the same in his demesne as of fee, and by a fine levied at Westminster a fortnight after Easter, 31 Henry VI. before John Prysot and his fellows, justices of the Bench, between Nicholas Radeford, William Dodesham and John Loty, plaintiffs, and the said James and Elizabeth his wife, deforciant, concerning 5 messuages, 3 carucates of land and 6 acres of meadow of the above and 13*d.* rent the said deforciant acknowledged these to be the right of the said Nicholas and the plaintiffs granted them to the said James and Elizabeth and the heirs of the body of James, and the said William Bonville, John Hody, Alexander and William Copleston died and also the said John Reynold and James Loterell, and the said Richard Haretre entered into the messuages, land, meadow and pasture aforesaid, in the possession of the said Elizabeth, who survived her husband, and was seised of the same in his demesne as of fee and enfeofed John Catur, clerk, kinsman and heir of the said John Roche, viz. son of Joan his sister, and brother of the said Robert, who is his heir, of the same, and one Henry Reynold, kinsman and heir of the said John Reynold, viz. son of William his brother, entered into the said manor, in the possession of the said Elizabeth, and was seised of the same in his demesne as of fee and enfeofed the said John Catur of the same, and the latter was seised of the premises in the present reign and received the esplees thereof and on his death without heir of his body the right of the premises descended to the said Robert as his brother and heir, and by an act in Parliament at Westminster, 4 November, 1 Edward IV. it was ordained that the said James by the name of James Lotrell, knight, should be attainted of high treason and should forfeit all his possessions, and by an inquisition taken at Ilchestre, co. Somerset, on 26 October, 1 Edward IV, before Thomas Gylle the younger, then escheator, it was found that a fine was levied as above and that at the time of the inquisition the said Elizabeth held the said messuages, lands, meadow and rent of the heir of Geoffrey Lutrell and they were worth 5 marks yearly and that the said James held the said manor jointly with his wife and the heirs of his body of the grant of John Loty and she then held it, and by another inquisition taken virtute officii at Dunster, co. Somerset, on 20 September, 4 Edward IV. before Thomas Mauncell, esquire, then escheator, and returned into the Exchequer, it was found that the said James was seised in his demesne as of fee of 9 messuages, 3 carucates of land, a toft, 300 acres of land, 50 acres of meadow, 100 acres of pasture and 20*d.* rent in Exton, Vexford, Rixyn, Stokegommere, Huyssh by Heybrygge, Cotheleston, Littyll Carhampton and Radlott, co. Somerset, worth 12 marks yearly, and the manors of Est Cantok and Yveton, co. Somerset, worth 20 marks yearly, and died on 2 February, 39 Henry VI, and the premises were accordingly taken into the king's hands, until he by letters patent dated 3 March, 4 Edward IV. granted them among other things to William Herbert, knight, lord Herbert, but that the said James never had any right in them, wherefore the said Robert prays that justice may be done. Feb. 24. The king's lieges John Marchall, Thomas Desford and John Wendy, Westminster. merchants of the city of London, have shown the king that in October, 1467, each of them sent a ship to the city of Bordeaux in the company of other ships of the realm and on the voyage they took a ship of the Spaniards laden with divers goods and merchandise opposite the Isle of Wight and took it to the port of Suthampton, and in this ship were certain persons calling themselves subjects of the duke of Burgundy who claimed the ownership of divers goods and merchandise in the ship, and although they raised war against the king's said lieges and aided the Spaniards, nevertheless after the capture they complained to Edward, lately earl of March, occupying the crown, as subjects of the duke of Burgundy and sought restitution, and the king's said lieges made answer to them and the complaint was dismissed, and afterwards the said duke of Burgundy at the instance of one Matice Tele of Bruges and others granted to the said Matice and his society letters of marque and reprisal against John Cok, John Esyngton, Nicholas Faunt, John Marchall, John Cole, John Wendy, Rither, knight, kinsman and heir male of William Rither, knight, and Sibyl his wife, viz. son and heir of William Rither their son and heir, that whereas by a fine levied at Westminster in the octave of Midsummer, 4 Henry IV. before William Thirnyng and his fellows, then justices of the Bench, between William Barker of Tadcastre and Thomas Thwates of Loftous, complainants, and William Rither and Sibyl his wife, deforciant, concerning among other things a moiety of the manor of Harwod, co. York, of which a moiety of 1,000 acres of wood and pasturage of Harwod called 'Swyndon' were then parcel, the said William and Sibyl acknowledged the moiety of the manor to be the right of the said William Barker as that which he and the said Thomas had of their grant and the latter granted it to them and the heirs male of their bodies, and they were seised of it and received the esplees thereof and the right of the same descended from them to William their son and heir and from him to the said petitioner as his son and heir, nevertheless Henry IV. claimed that the said moiety of 1,000 acres belonged to him as parcel of the honour and manor of Knaresburgh, parcel of the duchy of Lancaster, and caused it to be taken into his hands by Peter Bukton, knight, then constable and steward of the duchy, and the said William and Sibyl his wife to be removed from possession, and it came successively into the hands of Henry V. and Henry VI. and finally into the hands of the present king where it still remains, wherefore the petitioner prays that justice may be done.

CALENDARS OF STATE PAPERS, &c.

[IMPERIAL 8vo., cloth. Price 15s. each Volume or Part.]

Subsequent to recommendations of Committees of the House of Commons in 1800 and 1836, the Master of the Rolls, in 1865, stated to the Lords of the Treasury that although "the Records, State Papers, and Documents in his charge constitute the most complete and perfect series of their kind in the civilized world," and although "they are of the greatest value in a historical and constitutional point of view, yet they are comparatively useless to the public, from the want of proper Calendars and Indexes." Whereupon their Lordships assented to the necessity of having Calendars prepared and printed, and empowered the Master of the Rolls to take such steps as might be necessary for this purpose.

The following Works have been already published in this Series :—

CALENDARIUM GENEALOGICUM; for the Reigns of Henry III. and Edward I. Edited by CHARLES ROBERTS. 2 Vols. 1865.

THE CHRONICLES AND MEMORIALS OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND DURING THE MIDDLE AGES.

[ROYAL 8vo. Price 10s. each Volume or Part.]

1. THE CHRONICLES OF ENGLAND, by JOHN CAPGRAVE. Edited by the Rev. F. C. HINGESTON, M.A. 1858.

Capgrave's Chronicle extends from the creation of the world to the year 1417. Being written in English, it is of value as a record of the language spoken in Norfolk.

2. CHRONICON MONASTERII DE ABINGDON. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. JOSEPH STEPHENSON, M.A., Vicar of Leighton Buzzard. 1858.

This Chronicle traces the history of the monastery from its foundation by King Ina of Wessex, to the reign of Richard I. The author incorporates into his history various charters of the Saxon kings, as illustrating not only the history of the locality but that of the kingdom.

3. LIVES OF EDWARD THE CONFESSOR. I.—La Estoire de Seint Aedward le Rei. II.—Vita Beati Edvardi Regis et Confessoris. III.—Vita Ædunardi Regis qui apud Westmonasterium requiescit. Edited by HENRY RICHARDS LUARD, M.A., Fellow and Assistant Tutor of Trinity College, Cambridge. 1858.

The first is a poem in French, probably written in 1245. The second is an anonymous poem, written between 1440 and 1450, which is mainly valuable as a specimen of the Latin poetry of the time. The third, also by an anonymous author, was apparently written between 1066 and 1074.

4. MONUMENTA FRANCISCANA.

Vol. I.—Thomas de Eccleston de Adventu Fratrum Minorum in Angliam. Adæ de Marisco Epistolæ. Registrum Fratrum Minorum Londoniæ. Edited by J. S. BREWER, M.A., Professor of English Literature, King's College, London.

Vol. II.—De Adventu Minorum; re-edited with editions. Chronicle of the Grey Friars. The ancient English version of the Rule of St. Francis. Abbreviatio Statutorum, 1451, &c. Edited by RICHARD HOWLETT, Barrister-at-Law. 1858, 1882.

5. FASCICULI ZIZANIORUM MAGISTRI JOHANNIS WYCLIF CUM TRITICO. Ascribed to THOMAS NETTER, of WALDEN, Provincial of the Carmelite Order in England, and Confessor to King Henry the Fifth. Edited by the Rev. W. W. SHIRLEY, M.A., Tutor and late Fellow of Wadham College, Oxford. 1858.

This work gives the only contemporaneous account of the rise of the Lollards.

6. THE BUIK OF THE CHRONICLIS OF SCOTLAND; or, A Metrical Version of the History of Hector Boece; by WILLIAM STEWART. Vols. I.-III. Edited by W. B. TURNBULL, Barrister-at-Law. 1858.

This is a metrical translation of a Latin Prose Chronicle, written in the first half of the 16th century. The narrative begins with the earliest legends and ends with the death of James I. of Scotland, and the "evil ending of the traitors that slew him." The peculiarities of the Scottish dialect are well illustrated in this version.

7. JOHANNIS CAPGRAVE LIBER DE ILLUSTRIBUS HENRICIS. Edited by the Rev. F. C. HINGESTON, M.A. 1858.

The first part relates only to the history of the Empire from the election of Henry I. the Fowler, to the end of the reign of the Emperor Henry VI. The second part is devoted to English history, from the accession of Henry I. in 1100, to 1446, which was the twenty-fourth year of the reign of Henry VI. The third part contains the lives of illustrious men who have borne the name of Henry in various parts of the world.

8. HISTORIA MONASTERII S. AUGUSTINI CANTUARIENSIS by THOMAS OF ELMHAM, formerly Monk and Treasurer of that Foundation. Edited by CHARLES HARDWICK, M.A., Fellow of St. Catherine's Hall, and Christian Advocate in the University of Cambridge. 1858.

This history extends from the arrival of St. Augustine in Kent until 1191.

9. EULOGIUM (HISTORIARIUM SIVE TEMPORIS): Chronicon ab Orbe condito usque ad Annum Domini 1386; a monacho quodam Malmesbiriensi exaratum. Vols. I.-III. Edited by F. S. HAYDON, B.A. 1858-1863.

This is a Latin Chronicle extending from the Creation to the latter part of the reign of Edward III., with a continuation to the year 1418.

10. MEMORIALS OF HENRY THE SEVENTH; Bernardi Andreæ Tholosatis Vita Regis Henrici Septimi; neonon alia quædam ad eundem Regem Spectantia. Edited by JAMES GAIRDNER. 1858.

The contents of this volume are—(1) a life of Henry VII., by his poet Laureate and historiographer, Bernard André, of Toulouse, with some compositions in verse, of which he is supposed to have been the author; (2) the journals of Roger Machado during certain embassies to Spain and Brittany, the first of which had reference to the marriage of the King's son, Arthur, with Catharine of Arragon; (3) two curious reports by envoys sent to Spain in 1506 touching the succession to the Crown of Castile, and a project of marriage between Henry VII. and the Queen of Naples; and (4) an account of Philip of Castile's reception in England in 1506. Other documents of interest are given in an appendix.

11. MEMORIALS OF HENRY THE FIFTH. I.—Vita Henrici Quinti, Roberto Redmanno auctore. II.—Versus Rhythmici in laudem Regis Henrici Quinti. III.—Elmhami Liber Metricus de Henrico V. Edited by CHARLES A. COLE. 1858.

12. MUNIMENTÆ GILDHALLÆ LONDONIENSIS; Liber Albus, Liber Customarum, et Liber Horn, in archivis Gildhallæ asservati.

Vol. I., Liber Albus.

Vol. II. (in Two Parts), Liber Customarum.

Vol. III., Translation of the Anglo-Norman Passages in Liber Albus, Glossaries, Appendices, and Index.

Edited by HENRY THOMAS RILEY, M.A., Barrister-at-Law. 1859-1862.

The Liber Albus, compiled by John Carpenter, Common Clerk of the City of London in the year 1419, gives an account of the laws, regulations, and institutions of that City in the 12th, 13th, 14th, and early part of the 15th centuries. The Liber Customarum was compiled in the early part of the 14th century during the reign of Edward II. It also gives an account of the laws, regulations, and institutions of the City of London in the 12th, 13th, and early part of the 14th centuries.

13. CHRONICA JOHANNIS DE OXENEDES. Edited by SIR HENRY ELLIS, K.H. 1859.

Although this Chronicle tells of the arrival of Hengist and Horsa, it substantially begins with the reign of King Alfred, and comes down to 1292. It is particularly valuable for notices of events in the eastern portions of the kingdom.

14. A COLLECTION OF POLITICAL POEMS AND SONGS RELATING TO ENGLISH HISTORY, FROM THE ACCESSION OF EDWARD III. TO THE REIGN OF HENRY VIII. Vols. I. and II. Edited by THOMAS WRIGHT, M.A. 1859-1861.

15. The "OPUS TERTIUM," "OPUS MINUS," &c. of ROGER BACON. Edited by J. S. BREWER, M.A., Professor of English Literature, King's College, London. 1859.

16. BARTHOLOMÆI DE COTTON, MONACHI NORWICENSIS, HISTORIA ANGLICANA; 449-1298; neonon ejusdem Liber de Archiepiscopis et Episcopis Angliæ. Edited by HENRY RICHARDS LUARD, M.A., Fellow and Assistant Tutor of Trinity College, Cambridge, 1859.

17. BRUT Y TYWYSGOGION; or, The Chronicle of the Princes of Wales. Edited by the Rev. JOHN WILLIAMS AB ITHEL, M.A. 1860.

This work, written in the ancient Welsh language, begins with the abdication and death of Cædwalla at Rome, in the year 681, and continues the history down to the subjugation of Wales by Edward I., about the year 1282.

18. A COLLECTION OF ROYAL AND HISTORICAL LETTERS DURING THE REIGN OF HENRY IV. 1399-1404. Edited by the Rev. F. C. HINGESTON, M.A., of Exeter College, Oxford. 1860.
19. THE REPRESSOR OF OVER MUCH BLAMING OF THE CLERGY. By REGINALD PEOCK, sometime Bishop of Chichester. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. CHURCHILL BABINGTON, B.D., Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge. 1860.

The author was born about the end of the fourteenth century, consecrated Bishop of St. Asaph in the year 1444, and translated to the see of Chichester in 1450. His work gives a full account of the views of the Lollards, and has great value for the philologist.

20. ANNALES CAMBRIÆ. Edited by the Rev. JOHN WILLIAMS AB ITHEL, M.A. 1860.

These annals, which are in Latin, commence in 447, and come down to 1288. The earlier portion appears to be taken from an Irish Chronicle used by Tigernach, and by the compiler of the Annals of Ulster.

21. THE WORKS OF GIRALDUS CAMBRENSIS. Vols. I.-IV. Edited by the Rev. J. S. BREWER, M.A., Professor of English Literature, King's College, London. Vols. V.-VII. Edited by the Rev. JAMES F. DIMOCK, M.A., Rector of Barnburgh, Yorkshire. Vol. VIII. Edited by GEORGE F. WARNER, M.A., of the Department of MSS., British Museum. 1861-1891.

These volumes contain the historical works of Gerald du Barry, who lived in the reigns of Henry II., Richard I., and John.

The Topographia Hibernica (in Vol. V.) is the result of Giraldus' two visits to Ireland, the first in 1183, the second in 1185-6, when he accompanied Prince John into that country. The Expugnatio Hibernica was written about 1188. Vol. VI. contains the Itinerarium Cambriae et Descriptio Cambriae; and Vol. VII., the lives of S. Remigius and S. Hugh. Vol. VIII. contains the Treatise De Principum Instructione, and an index to Vols. I.-IV. and VIII.

22. LETTERS AND PAPERS ILLUSTRATIVE OF THE WARS OF THE ENGLISH IN FRANCE DURING THE REIGN OF HENRY THE SIXTH, KING OF ENGLAND, Vol. I., and Vol. II. (in Two Parts). Edited by the Rev. JOSEPH STEVENSON, M.A., Vicar of Leighton Buzzard. 1861-1864.

23. THE ANGLO-SAXON CHRONICLE, ACCORDING TO THE SEVERAL ORIGINAL AUTHORITIES. Vol. I., Original Texts. Vol. II., Translation. Edited and translated by BENJAMIN THORPE, Member of the Royal Academy of Sciences at Munich, and of the Society of Netherlandish Literature at Leyden. 1861.

There are at present six independent manuscripts of the Saxon Chronicle, ending in different years, and written in different parts of the country. In this edition, the text of each manuscript is printed in columns on the same page, so that the student may see at a glance the various changes which occur in orthography.

24. LETTERS AND PAPERS ILLUSTRATIVE OF THE REIGNS OF RICHARD III. AND HENRY VII. Vols. I. and II. Edited by JAMES GARDINER. 1861-1863.

The principal contents of the volumes are some diplomatic Papers of Richard III. correspondence between Henry VII. and Ferdinand and Isabella of Spain; documents relating to Edmund de la Pole, Earl of Suffolk; and a portion of the correspondence of James IV. of Scotland.

25. LETTERS OF BISHOP GROSSETESTE. Edited by the Rev. HENRY RICHARDS LUARD, M.A., Fellow and Assistant Tutor of Trinity College, Cambridge. 1861.

The letters of Robert Grosseteste range in date from about 1210 to 1253. They refer especially to the diocese of Lincoln, of which Grosseteste was bishop.

26. DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE OF MANUSCRIPTS RELATING TO THE HISTORY OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND. Vol. I. (in Two Parts); Anterior to the Norman Invasion. (Out of print.) Vol. II.; 1066-1200. Vol. III.; 1200-1327. By Sir THOMAS DUFFUS HARDY, D.C.L., Deputy Keeper of the Records. 1862-1871.

7. YPODIGMA NEUSTRIÆ A THOMA WALSHINGHAM, QUONDAM MONACHO MONASTERII S. ALBANI, CONSCRIPTUM.

Edited by HENRY THOMAS RILEY, M.A., Barrister-at-Law. 1863-1876.

In the first two volumes is a History of England, from the death of Henry III. to the death of Henry V., by Thomas Walsingham, Precentor of St. Albans.

In the 3rd volume is a Chronicle of English History, attributed to William Rishanger, who lived in the reign of Edward I.: an account of transactions attending the award of the kingdom of Scotland to John Balliol, 1291-1292, also attributed to William Rishanger, but on no sufficient ground: a short Chronicle of English History, 1292 to 1300, by an unknown hand: a short Chronicle, Willelmi Rishanger Gesta Edwardi Primi, Regis Angeliæ, probably by the same hand: and fragments of three Chronicles of English History, 1285 to 1307.

In the 4th volume is a Chronicle of English History, 1259 to 1296: Annals of Edward II., 1307 to 1323, by John de Trokelowe, a monk of St. Albans, and a continuation of Trokelowe's Annals, 1323, 1324, by Henry de Blaneforme: a full Chronicle of English History, 1392 to 1406, and an account of the benefactors of St. Albans, written in the early part of the 16th century.

The 5th, 6th, and 7th volumes contain a history of the Abbots of St. Albans, 793 to 1411, mainly compiled by Thomas Walsingham, with a Continuation.

The 8th and 9th volumes, in continuation of the Annals, contain a Chronicle probably of John Amundesham, a monk of St. Albans.

The 10th and 11th volumes relate especially to the acts and proceedings of Abbots Whethamstede, Albon, and Walingford.

The 12th volume contains a compendious History of England to the reign of Henry V. and of Normandy in early times, also by Thomas Walsingham, and dedicated to Henry V.

29. CHRONICON ABBATIS EVESHAMENSIS, AUCTORIBUS DOMINICO PRIORE EVESHAMIE ET THOMA DE MARLEBERGE ABBATE, A FUNDATIONE AD ANNUM 1213, UNA CUM CONTINUATIONE AD ANNUM 1418. Edited by the Rev. W. D. MACRAY, Bodleian Library, Oxford. 1863.

The Chronicle of Evesham illustrates the history of that important monastery from 690 to 1418. Its chief feature is an autobiography, which makes us acquainted with the inner daily life of a great abbey. Interspersed are many notices of general, personal, and local history.

30. RICARDI DE CIRENCESTRIA SPECULUM HISTORIALE DE GESTIS REGUM ANGLE. Vol. I., 447-871. Vol. II., 872-1066. Edited by JOHN E. B. MAYOR, M.A., Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge. 1863-1869.

Richard of Cirencester's history is in four books, and gives many charters in favour of Westminster Abbey, and a very full account of the lives and miracles of the saints especially of Edward the Confessor, whose reign occupies the fourth book. A treatise on the Coronation, by William of Sudbury, a monk of Westminster, fills book ii. c. 3.

31. YEAR BOOKS OF THE REIGNS OF EDWARD THE FIRST AND EDWARD THE THIRD. Years 20-21, 21-22, 30-31, 32-33, and 33-35 Edw. I; and 11-12 Edw. III. Edited and translated by ALFRED JOHN HORWOOD, Barrister-at-Law. Years 12-13, 13-14, 14, 14-15, 15 and 16 Edward III. Edited and translated by LUKE OWEN PIKE, M.A., Barrister-at-Law. 1863-1896.

32. NARRATIVES OF THE EXPULSION OF THE ENGLISH FROM NORMANDY, 1449-1450.—Robertus Blondelli de Reductione Normanniæ: Le Recouvrement de Normendie, par Berry, Hérault du Roy: Conferences between the Ambassadors of France and England. Edited by the Rev. JOSEPH STEVENSON, M.A. 1863.
33. HISTORIA ET CARTULARIUM MONASTERII S. PETRI GLOUCESTRÆ. Vols. I.-III. Edited by W.H. HART, F.S.A., Membre Correspondant de la Société des Antiquaires de Normandie. 1863-1867.
34. ALEXANDRI NECKAM DE NATURIS RERUM LIBRI DUO; with NECKAM'S POEM, DE LAUDIBUS DIVINÆ SAPIENTIÆ. Edited by THOMAS WRIGHT, M.A. 1863.
35. LEECHDOMS, WORTCUNNING, AND STARCRAFT OF EARLY ENGLAND; being a Collection of Documents illustrating the History of Science in this Country before the Norman Conquest. Vols. I.-III. Collected and edited by the Rev. T. OSWALD COCKAYNE, M.A. 1864-1866.
36. ANNALES MONASTICI.
 Vol. I.:—Annales de Margan, 1066-1232; Annales de Theokesberia, 1066-1263; Annales de Burton, 1004-1263.
 Vol. II.:—Annales Monasterii de Wintonia, 519-1277; Annales Monasterii de Waverleia, 1-1291.
 Vol. III.:—Annales Prioratus de Dunstaplia, 1-1297. Annales Monasterii de Bermundeseia, 1042-1432.
 Vol. IV.:—Annales Monasterii de Oseneia, 1016-1347; Chronicon vulgo dictum Chronicon Thomæ Wykes, 1066-1289; Annales Prioratus de Wigornia, 1-1377.
 Vol. V.:—Index and Glossary.
Edited by HENRY RICHARDS LUARDS, M.A., Fellow and Assistant Tutor of Trinity College, and Registry of the University, Cambridge. 1864-1869.
37. MAGNA VITA S. HUGONIS EPISCOPI LINCOLNIENSIS. Edited by the Rev. JAMES F. DIMOCK, M.A., Rector of Barnburgh, Yorkshire. 1864.
38. CHRONICLES AND MEMORIALS OF THE REIGN OF RICHARD THE FIRST.
 Vol. I.:—ITINERARIUM PEREGRINORUM ET GESTA REGIS RICARDI.
 Vol. II.:—EPISTOLÆ CANTUARIENSES; the Letters of the Prior and Convent of Christ Church, Canterbury; 1187 to 1199.
Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Vicar of Navestock, Essex, and Lambeth Librarian. 1864-1866.
 The authorship of the Chronicle in Vol. I., hitherto ascribed to Geoffrey Vinesauf, is now more correctly ascribed to Richard, Canon of the Holy Trinity of London.
 The letters in Vol. II., written between 1187 and 1199, had their origin in a dispute which arose from the attempts of Baldwin and Hubert, archbishops of Canterbury, to found a college of secular canons, a project which gave great umbrage to the monks of Canterbury.
39. RECUEIL DES CRONIKES ET ANCHIENNES ISTORIES DE LA GRANT BRETAGNE A PRESENT NOMME ENGLETERRE, par JEHAN DE WAURIN. Vol. I., Albina to 688. Vol. II., 1399-1422. Vol. III., 1422-1431. Edited by WILLIAM HARDY, F.S.A. 1864-1879. Vol. IV., 1431-1447. Vol. V., 1447-1471. Edited by Sir WILLIAM HARDY, F.S.A., and EDWARD L. C. P. HARDY, F.S.A. 1884-1891.
40. A COLLECTION OF THE CHRONICLES AND ANCIENT HISTORIES OF GREAT BRITAIN, NOW CALLED ENGLAND, by JOHN DE WAURIN. Vol. I., Albina to 688. Vol. II., 1399-1422. Vol. III., 1422-1431. (Translations of the preceding Vols. I., II., and III.) Edited and translated by Sir WILLIAM HARDY, F.S.A., and EDWARD L. C. P. HARDY, F.S.A. 1864-1891.

41. POLYCHRONICON RANULPHI HIGDEN, with Trevisa's Translation. Vols. I. and II. Edited by CHURCHILL BABINGTON, B.D., Senior Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge. Vols. III.-IX. Edited by the Rev. JOSEPH RAWSON LUMBY, D.D., Norrisian Professor of Divinity, Vicar of St. Edward's, Fellow of St. Catherine's College, and late Fellow of Magdalene College, Cambridge. 1865-1886.

This chronicle begins with the Creation, and is brought down to the reign of Edward III. The two English translations, which are printed with the original Latin, afford interesting illustrations of the gradual change of our language, for one was made in the fourteenth century, the other in the fifteenth.

42. LE LIVRE DE REIS DE BRITTANIE E LE LIVRE DE REIS DE ENGLETERE. Edited by the Rev. JOHN GLOVER, M.A., Vicar of Brading, Isle of Wight, formerly Librarian of Trinity College, Cambridge. 1865.

These two treatises are valuable as careful abstracts of previous historians.

43. CHRONICA MONASTERII DE MELSA AB ANNO 1150 USQUE AD ANNUM 1406, Vols. I.-III. Edited by EDWARD AUGUSTUS BOND, Assistant Keeper of Manuscripts, and Egerton Librarian, British Museum. 1866-1868.

44. MATTHÆI PARISIENSIS HISTORIA ANGLORUM, SIVE UT VULGO DICTUR, HISTORIA MINOR. Vols. I.,-III. 1067-1253. Edited by Sir FREDERICK MADDEN, K.H., Keeper of the Manuscript Department of the British Museum. 1866-1869.

45. LIBER MONASTERII DE HYDA: A CHRONICLE AND CHARTULARY OF HYDE ABBEY, WINCHESTER, 455-1023. Edited by EDWARD EDWARDS. 1866.

The "Book of Hyde" is a compilation from much earlier sources, which are usually indicated with considerable care and precision. In many cases, however, the Hyde Chronicler appears to correct, to qualify, or to amplify the statements which, in substance, he adopts.

There is to be found, in the "Book of Hyde," much information relating to the reign of King Alfred which is not known to exist elsewhere. The volume contains some curious specimens of Anglo-Saxon and mediæval English.

46. CHRONICON SCOTORUM: A CHRONICLE OF IRISH AFFAIRS, from the earliest times to 1135; and SUPPLEMENT, containing the events from 1141 to 1150. Edited, with Translation, by WILLIAM MAUNSELL HENNESSY, M.R.I.A. 1866.

47. THE CHRONICLE OF PIERRE DE LANGTOFT, IN FRENCH VERSE, FROM THE EARLIEST PERIOD TO THE DEATH OF EDWARD I. Vols. I. and II. Edited by THOMAS WRIGHT, M.A. 1866-1868.

It is probable that Pierre de Langtoft was a canon of Bridlington, in Yorkshire, and lived in the reign of Edward I., and during a portion of the reign of Edward II. This chronicle is divided into three parts; in the first, is an abridgment of Geoffrey of Monmouth's "Historia Britonum"; in the second, a history of the Anglo-Saxon and Norman kings, to the death of Henry III.; in the third, a history of the reign of Edward I. The language is a specimen of the French of Yorkshire.

48. THE WAR OF THE GAEDHIL WITH THE GAILL, OR THE INVASIONS OF IRELAND BY THE DANES AND OTHER NORSEMEN. Edited, with a Translation, by the Rev. JAMES HENTHORN TODD, D.D., Senior Fellow of Trinity College, and Regius Professor of Hebrew in the University of Dublin. 1867.

49. GESTA REGIS HENRICI SECUNDI BENEDICTI ABBATIS. CHRONICLE OF THE REIGNS OF HENRY II. AND RICHARD I., 1169-1192, known under the name of BENEDICT OF PETERBOROUGH. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History, Oxford, and Lambeth Librarian. 1867.

50. MUNIMENTA ACADEMICA, OR, DOCUMENTS ILLUSTRATIVE OF ACADEMICAL LIFE AND STUDIES AT OXFORD (in Two Parts). Edited by the Rev. HENRY ANSTEY, M.A., Vicar of St. Wendron, Cornwall, and late Vice-Principal of St. Mary Hall, Oxford. 1868.

51. CHRONICA MAGISTRI ROGERI DE HOVEDENE. Vols. I.-IV. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History and Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford. 1868-1871.

The earlier portion, extending from 793 to 1149, appears to be a copy of a compilation made in Northumbria about 1161, to which Hoveden added little. From 1148 to 1169—a very valuable portion of this work—the matter is derived from another source, to which Hoveden appears to have supplied little. From 1170 to 1192 is the portion which corresponds to some extent with the Chronicle known under the name of Benedict of Peterborough (see No. 49). From 1192 to 1231 may be said to be wholly Hoveden's work.

52. WILLELMI MALMESBIRIENSIS MONACHI DE GESTIS PONTIFICUM ANGLORUM LIBRI QUINQUE. Edited by N. E. S. A. HAMILTON, of the Department of Manuscripts, British Museum. 1870.

53. HISTORIC AND MUNICIPAL DOCUMENTS OF IRELAND, FROM THE ARCHIVES OF THE CITY OF DUBLIN, &c. 1172-1320. Edited by JOHN T. GILBERT, F.S.A., Secretary of the Public Record Office of Ireland. 1870.

54. THE ANNALS OF LOCH CE. A CHRONICLE OF IRISH AFFAIRS, FROM 1041 to 1590. Vols. I. and II. Edited, with a Translation, by WILLIAM MAUNSELL HENNESSY, M.R.I.A. 1871.

55. MONUMENTA JURIDICA. THE BLACK BOOK OF THE ADMIRALTY, WITH APPENDICES, Vols. I.-IV. Edited by Sir TRAVERS TWISS, Q.C., D.C.L. 1871-1876.

This book contains the ancient ordinances and laws relating to the navy.

56. MEMORIALS OF THE REIGN OF HENRY VI. :—OFFICIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THOMAS BEKYNTON, SECRETARY TO HENRY VI., AND BISHOP OF BATH AND WELLS. Edited by the Rev. GEORGE WILLIAMS, B.D., Vicar of Ringwood, late Fellow of King's College, Cambridge. Vols. I. and II. 1872.

57. MATTHÆI PARISIENSIS, MONACHI SANCTI ALBANI, CHRONICA MAJORA. Vol. I. The Creation to A.D. 1066. Vol. II. A.D. 1067 to A.D. 1216. Vol. III. A.D. 1216 to A.D. 1239. Vol. IV. A.D. 1240 to A.D. 1247. Vol. V. A.D. 1248 to A.D. 1259. Vol. VI. Additamenta. Vol. VII. Index. Edited by the Rev. HENRY RICHARDS LUARD, D.D., Fellow of Trinity College, Registry of the University, and Vicar of Great St. Mary's, Cambridge. 1872-1884.

58. MEMORIAL FRATRIS WALTERI DE COVENTRIA.—THE HISTORICAL COLLECTIONS OF WALTER OF COVENTRY. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History, and Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford. 1872-1873.

59. THE ANGLO-LATIN SATIRICAL POETS AND EPIGRAMMATISTS OF THE TWELFTH CENTURY. Vols. I. and II. Collected and edited by THOMAS WRIGHT, M.A., Corresponding Member of the National Institute of France (Académie des Inscriptions et Belles-Lettres). 1872.

60. MATERIALS FOR A HISTORY OF THE REIGN OF HENRY VII., FROM ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS PRESERVED IN THE PUBLIC RECORD OFFICE. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM CAMPBELL, M.A., one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools. 1873-1877.

61. HISTORICAL PAPERS AND LETTERS FROM THE NORTHERN REGISTERS. Edited by the Rev. JAMES RAINE, M.A., Canon of York, and Secretary of the Surtees Society. 1873.

62. REGISTRUM PALATINUM DUNELMENSE. THE REGISTER OF RICHARD DE KELLAWE, LORD PALATINE AND BISHOP OF DURHAM; 1311-1316. Vols. I.-IV. Edited by Sir THOMAS DUFFUS HARDY, D.C.L., Deputy Keeper of the Records. 1873-1878.

63. MEMORIALS OF ST. DUNSTAN, ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History, and Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford. 1874.

78. REGISTER OF S. OSMUND. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. W. H. RICH JONES, M.A., F.S.A., Canon of Salisbury, Vicar of Bradford-on-Avon. 1883, 1884.
 This Register derives its name from containing the statutes, rules, and orders made or compiled by S. Osmund, to be observed in the Cathedral and diocese of Salisbury.
79. CHARTULARY OF THE ABBEY OF RAMSEY. Vols. I.-III. Edited by WILLIAM HENRY HART, F.S.A., and the Rev. PONSONBY ANNESLEY LYONS. 1884-1893.
80. CHARTULARIES OF ST. MARY'S ABBEY, DUBLIN, WITH THE REGISTER OF ITS HOUSE AT DUNBRODY, COUNTY OF WEXFORD, AND ANNALS OF IRELAND, 1162-1370. Vols. I. and II. Edited by JOHN THOMAS GILBERT, F.S.A., M.R.I.A. 1884, 1885.
81. EADMERI HISTORIA NOVORUM IN ANGLIA, ET OPUSCULA DUO DE VITA SANCTI ANSELMI ET QUIBUSDAM MIRACULIS EJUS. Edited by the Rev. MARTIN RULE, M.A. 1884.
82. CHRONICLES OF THE REIGNS OF STEPHEN, HENRY II., AND RICHARD I. Vols. I.-IV. Edited by RICHARD HOWLETT, Barrister-at-Law. 1884-1889.
 Vol. I. contains Books I.-IV. of the Historia Rerum Anglicarum of William of Newburgh. Vol. II. contains Book V. of that work, the continuation of the same to A.D. 1296, and the Draco Normannicus of Etienne de Rouen.
 Vol. III. contains the Gesta Stephani Regis, the Chronicle of Richard of Hexham, the Relatio de Standardo of St. Aelred of Rievaulx, the poem of Jordan Fantosme, and the Chronicle of Richard of Devizes.
 Vol. IV. contains the Chronicle of Robert of Torigni.
83. CHRONICLE OF THE ABBEY OF RAMSEY. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM DUNN MACRAY, M.A., F.S.A., Rector of Ducklington, Oxon. 1886.
84. CHRONICA ROGERI DE WENDOVER, SIVE FLORES HISTORIARUM. Vols. I.-III. Edited by HENRY GAY HEWLETT, Keeper of the Records of the Land Revenue. 1886-1889.
 This edition gives that portion only of Roger of Wendover's Chronicle which can be accounted an original authority.
85. THE LETTER BOOKS OF THE MONASTERY OF CHRIST CHURCH, CANTERBURY. Vols. I.-III. Edited by JOSEPH BRIGSTOCKE SHEPPARD, LL.D. 1887-1889.
 The Letters printed in these volumes were chiefly written between 1296 and 1333.
86. THE METRICAL CHRONICLE OF ROBERT OF GLOUCESTER. Edited by WILLIAM ALDIS WRIGHT, M.A., Senior Fellow of Trinity College, Cambridge. Parts I. and II., 1887.
 The date of the composition of this Chronicle is placed about the year 1300. The writer appears to have been an eye witness of many events of which he describes. The language in which it is written was the dialect of Gloucestershire at that time.
87. CHRONICLE OF ROBERT OF BRUNNE. Edited by FREDERICK JAMES FURNIVALL, M.A., Barrister-at-Law. Parts I. and II. 1887.
 Robert of Brunne, or Bourne, co. Lincoln, was a member of the Gilbertine Order established at Sempringham. His Chronicle is described by its editor as a work of fiction, a contribution not to English history, but to the history of English.
88. IOELANDIC SAGAS AND OTHER HISTORICAL DOCUMENTS relating to the Settlements and Descents of the Northmen on the British Isles. Vol. I. Orkeyinga Saga, and Magnus Saga. Vol. II. WORKS PUBLISHED IN PHOTOZINCOGRAPHY.

DOMESDAY BOOK, or the GREAT SURVEY OF ENGLAND OF WILLIAM THE CONQUEROR, 1086; fac-simile of the Part relating to each county, separately (with a few exceptions of double counties). Photozincographed at the Ordnance Survey Office, Southampton, by Colonel Sir HENRY JAMES, R.E., F.R.S., DIRECTOR-GENERAL of the ORDNANCE SURVEY, under the superintendence of W. BASEVI SANDERS, an Assistant Record Keeper. 35 Parts, imperial quarto and demy quarto (1861-1863), boards.

Domesday Survey is in two parts or volumes. The first, in folio, contains the counties of Bedford, Berks, Bucks, Cambridge, Chester, and Lancaster, Cornwall, Derby, Devon, Dorset, Gloucester, Hants, Hereford, Herts, Huntingdon, Kent, Leicester and Rutland, Lincoln, Middlesex, Northampton, Nottingham, Oxford, Salop, Somerset, Stafford, Surrey, Sussex, Warwick, Wilts, Worcester, and York. The second volume, in quarto, contains the counties of Essex, Norfolk, and Suffolk.

Domesday Book was printed verbatim et literatim during the last century, in consequence of an address of the House of Lords to King George III. in 1767. It was not, however, commenced until 1778, and was completed early in 1788. In 1860, Her Majesty's Government, with the concurrence of the Master of the Rolls, determined to apply the art of photozincography in the production of a fac-simile of Domesday Book.

FAC-SIMILES OF NATIONAL MANUSCRIPTS, from WILLIAM THE CONQUEROR to QUEEN ANNE, selected under the direction of the Master of the Rolls and Photozincographed, by Command of Her Majesty, by Colonel Sir HENRY JAMES, R.E., F.R.S., DIRECTOR-GENERAL of the ORDNANCE SURVEY, and edited by W. BASEVI SANDERS, an Assistant Record Keeper. Price, each Part, with translations and notes, double foolscap folio, 16s.

Part I. (William the Conqueror to Henry VII.). 1865. (Out of print)

Part II. (Henry VII. and Edward VI.). 1866.

Part III. (Mary and Elizabeth). 1867.

Part IV. (James I. to Anne). 1868.

The first Part extends from William the Conqueror to Henry VII., and contains autographs of the kings of England, as well as of many other illustrious personages famous in history, and some interesting charters, letters patent, and state papers. The second Part, for the reigns of Henry VIII. and Edward VI., consists principally of holograph letters, and autographs of kings, princes, statesmen, and other persons of great historical interest, who lived during those reigns. The third Part contains similar documents for the reigns of Mary and Elizabeth, including a signed bill of Lady Jane Grey. The fourth Part concludes the series, and comprises a number of documents taken from the originals belonging to the Constable of the Tower of London; also several records illustrative of the Gunpowder Plot, and a woodcut containing portraits of Mary Queen of Scots and James VI., circulated by their adherents in England, 1580-3.

FAC-SIMILES OF ANGLO-SAXON MANUSCRIPTS. Photozincographed, by Command of Her Majesty, upon the recommendation of the Master of the Rolls, by the DIRECTOR-GENERAL of the ORDNANCE SURVEY, Lieut.-General J. CAMERON, R.E., O.B., F.R.S., and edited by W. BASEVI SANDERS, an Assistant Record Keeper. Part I. Price 2l. 10s.

The Anglo-Saxon MSS. represented in this volume form the earlier portions of the collection of archives belonging to the Dean and Chapter of Canterbury, and consist of a series of 25 charters, deeds, and wills, commencing with a record of proceedings at the first Synodal Council of Clovesho in 742, and terminating with the first part of a tripartite chirograph of the sixth year of the reign of Edward the Confessor.

FAC-SIMILES OF ANGLO-SAXON MANUSCRIPTS. Photozincographed, by Command of Her Majesty, upon the recommendation of the Master of the Rolls, by the DIRECTOR-GENERAL of the ORDNANCE SURVEY, Major-General A. COOK, R.E., O.B., and collected and edited by W. BASEVI SANDERS, an Assistant Record Keeper. Part II. Price 3l. 10s. (Also, separately. Edward the Confessor's Charter. Price 2s.)

The originals of the fac-similes contained in this volume belong to the Deans and Chapters of Westminster, Exeter, Wells, Winchester, and Worcester; the Marquis of Bath, the Earl of Ilchester, Winchester College, Her Majesty's Public Record Office, Bodleian Library, Somersetshire Archaeological and Natural History Society's Museum in Taunton Castle, and William Salt Library at Stafford. They consist of charters and other documents granted by, or during the reigns of, Baldred, Æthelred, Offa, and Burgred, Kings of Mercia; Uhtred of the Huiccas, Caedwalla and Ini of Wessex; Æthelwulf, Eadward the Elder, Æthelstan, Eadmund the First, Eadred, Eadwig, Eadgar, Eadward the Second, Æthelred the Second, Cnut, Eadward the Confessor, and William the Conqueror, embracing altogether a period of nearly four hundred years.

FAC-SIMILES OF ANGLO-SAXON MANUSCRIPTS. Photozincographed, by Command of Her Majesty, upon the recommendation of the Master of the Rolls, by the DIRECTOR-GENERAL of the ORDNANCE SURVEY, Colonel R. H. STOTHERD, R.E., O.B., and collected and edited by W. BASEVI SANDERS, an Assistant Record Keeper. Part III. Price 6l. 6s.

This volume contains fac-similes of the Ashburnham Collection of Anglo-Saxon Charters, &c., including King Alfred's Will. The MSS. represented in it range from A.D. 697 to A.D. 1161, being charters, wills, deeds, and reports of Synodal transactions during the reigns of Kings Wihtrud of Kent, Offa, Eardwulf, Coenwulf, Cuthred, Beornwulf, Æthelwulf, Ælfred, Eadward the Elder, Eadmund, Eadred, Queen Eadgifu, and Kings Eadgar, Æthelred the Second, Cnut, Henry the First, and Henry the Second. In addition to these are two belonging to the Marquis of Anglesey, one of them being the Foundation Charter of Burton Abbey by Æthelred the Second, with the testament of its great benefactor Wulfrie.
